Claim Rejections – 35 U.S.C. § 112

The Examiner has objected to original claim 1 under 35 U.S.C. § 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to point out what is included or excluded by the claim language. Applicant has cancelled original claim 1 from the instant application. Applicant submits that newly added claims 2 through 22 comply with 35 U.S.C. § 112 and distinctly point out what is included or excluded by the claim language.

Claim Rejections – 35 U.S.C. § 102

The Examiner has objected to claim 1 under 35 U.S.C. § 102(e) alleging that said claim is anticipated by Rapps (U.S. 7,082,207 B2). Applicant disagrees and traverses the rejection based on the amended claim set submitted herewith.

New claim 2 of the instant application claims a headset apparatus comprising at least first and second speakers each speaker having a speaker chamber extending posteriorly thereto. This subject matter is neither taught nor suggested by Rapps. Further, claim 2 employs first and second tubes connected to the first and second speakers, the first tubes having first and second outlets for positioning adjacent a user ear. The subject matter associated with the first and second tubes and their outlets is neither taught nor suggested by Rapps. Accordingly, Applicant submits that amended claim 2 is not anticipated or obvious in view of Rapps. Further, as claims 3 through 21 depend on claim 2, Applicant submits that the subject matter of said claims is neither taught nor suggested by Rapps. Similarly, the subject matter of independent claim 22 is neither taught nor suggested by Rapps. Applicant respectfully requests reconsideration and withdrawal of the rejection.

Applicant has submitted herewith the fee for an additional dependent claim. Thus, no additional fees are believed to be due for the filing of this Amendment. In the event that the Office determines that fees are due, the Office is authorized to charge any underpayment or credit any overpayment to Deposit Account No. 18-1215.

In view of the foregoing, it is respectfully urged that the present claims are in condition for allowance and reconsideration is requested. An early notice to this effect is earnestly solicited. Should there be any questions regarding this application, the Examiner is invited to contact the undersigned at the number shown below.

Respectfully submitted,

Susan S. Jackson
